PERSONAL

Born 1962. Married, 1990, to Kathy J. Saunders. Kathy has B.A. and B.S. degrees from Kansas State University, where she was Phi Beta Kappa. She has also a J.D. from Indiana University-Bloomington, and an Associate's degree in Fire Science from Kansas City Community College. She passed the bar exam in both Indiana and Kansas and practiced municipal law in both. She is a certified fire fighter, fire instructor, EMT, and fire inspector. She has served as Attorney to the Bloomington, IN, City Council; a Management Analyst to the City of Lawrence, KS; a Major in the Lawrence, KS, Fire Department; and, the Fire Chief of the Bloomington, IN, Fire Department. She is currently the Fire Marshal of Knox County, TN (population 500k). Kathy has served on a number of boards and commissions in both the public and private sectors. She served as President of the Board for the Knoxville Montessori School from 2003-2010. We have one daughter, Kiyoko Cecelia, born 1996, and one son, Kame Benjamin, born 2001. (Kathy is Okinowan-American, hence the Japanese first names.) My hobbies and interests include playing guitar, attending concerts and music festivals, travel, hiking, cooking, politics, and reading in humanities.
